CITI RECRUITS WESTERN CANADIAN CLIENT MANAGER FOR GLOBAL TRANSACTION SERVICES BUSINESS

CALGARY – Citi is pleased to announce the appointment of Serge Vigneault as Client Manager for its western Canadian Global Transaction Services (GTS) team, located in Calgary. As Client Manager, Mr. Vigneault will focus on corporate clients based in Calgary and Western Canada.

Mr. Vigneault has more than a decade of experience in a variety of roles in corporate and investment banking. He comes to Citi from HSBC Global Banking and previously spent nearly 10 years with Citi on a number of international assignments, the last of which was as an Energy and Power Relationship Manager in Singapore.

“Serge Vigneault is an excellent addition to our growing business,” said John Landry, Managing Director and Head of GTS in Canada. “Western Canada is a key area of focus for our Canadian franchise and Mr. Vigneault will play a valuable role in helping our clients benefit from Citi’s global reach and expertise.”

“In returning to Citi and joining the GTS team I look forward to drawing on my international experience to ensure our clients have access to Citi’s best practices and capabilities,” said Mr. Vigneault.

Global Transaction Services, a division of Citi’s Institutional Clients Group, offers integrated cash management, trade, and securities and fund services to multinational corporations, financial institutions and public sector organizations around the world. With a network that spans more than 100 countries, Citi’s Global Transaction Services supports over 65,000 clients. As of the third quarter of 2010, it held on average $340 billion in liability balances and $12.4 trillion in assets under custody.

Citi currently employs more than 4,600 individuals in a range of consumer and institutional businesses across Canada.
